

A Resolution to Recognize Lee and Lynne Hoffman as Champions of Liberty

WHEREAS, Lee Hoffman gave decades of selfless service to the Elko County Republican Party until his sudden passing in October 2024; and

WHEREAS, He and his wife Lynne donated countless time and resources to freedom; and

WHEREAS, They were tireless warriors for the representation of rural Nevada counties;
and

WHEREAS, Lee was the Chairman of the Elko County Republican Party for eleven years;
and

WHEREAS, Lee represented the Elko County Republican Party and the Nevada Republican Party as Nevada's National Committeeman for six year; and

WHEREAS, Lee, along with his wife Lynne, developed a structure for the Elko Republican Party that allowed the remaining officers and the Executive Committee to continue to thrive without him;

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, That the Elko County Republican Party honors the late Lee Hoffman and his widow Lynne for their selfless dedication and service to Elko County, the Elko County Republican Party, and as champions of Constitutional Liberty.

This resolution adopted by the Elko County Republican Party in Convention on 21 February 2026.
