

Supporting Vibrant, Environmentally Responsible Industries in Mineral Exploration, Mining and Fabrication

Whereas, the United State is far too dependent upon imported minerals and mineral products; and

Therefore, be it Resolved, that a vibrant, environmentally responsible mineral exploration, mining, and final product fabrication industry should be encouraged at all levels of government and as general public policy.

Adopted February 29, 2020 by the Elko County Republican Convention